This Stripe Services Fee Schedule ("Fee Schedule"), effective as of the effective date stated above ("Effective Date"), is entered into by the Stripe entity and the user entity stated above (respectively, "Stripe" and "User").

1. Fees. Stripe will charge the fees listed below for the Services that Stripe provides to User under the Stripe agreement listed above ("Stripe Agreement") in the territory listed above ("Territory"). Stripe may deduct the fees from the relevant Stripe Account balance, or collect the fees as the Stripe Agreement otherwise allows.

Credit & Debit Card Fees

For each Transaction, Stripe will charge User the Network Cost for that Transaction, plus the applicable percentage of the Transaction Amount listed in the table below, calculated based on the preceding month's Net Monthly Card Volume. For each Payment Card Request, Stripe will also charge User the applicable fixed fee listed in the table below, calculated based on the preceding month's Net Monthly Card Volume. Stripe may retroactively adjust Network Cost calculations based on cost-related information Stripe receives from Financial Partners after Stripe processes the related Transaction.

"Net Monthly Card Volume" means the total card Transaction Amounts minus Refunds, normalized to the currency denoted in the fee tier rows below.

Percentage of Transaction Amount	Fixed Fee
Fee Tier 1: Net Monthly Card Volume (normalized to USD): USD 0 to 30,000,000
0.25%	0.035 USD
Fee Tier 2: Net Monthly Card Volume (normalized to USD): Greater than USD 30,000,000 to 60,000,000
0.18%	0.03 USD
Fee Tier 3: Net Monthly Card Volume (normalized to USD): Greater than USD 60,000,000 to 120,000,000
0.13%	0.025 USD
Fee Tier 4: Net Monthly Card Volume (normalized to USD): Greater than USD 120,000,000
0.10%	0.01 USD

Other Payment Methods Fees

For each Transaction, Stripe will charge User the applicable percentage of the Transaction Amount plus the applicable fixed fee listed in the table below.

For each Payment Method marked by an asterisk (*) in the table below, Stripe will also charge User the "International Payment Methods Fee" listed in the table further below.

Non-Terminal Transactions:

Other Payment Method Type	Percentage of Transaction Amount	Fixed Fee
Bancontact*	1.40%	0.30 USD
iDeal*	0.00%	0.80 USD
Link	2.70%	0.20 USD

Foreign Exchange Fee; International Payment Methods Fee

For each instance where funds are converted from one currency to another, Stripe will charge User a foreign exchange fee equal to the applicable percentage below multiplied by the converted amount.

For each Transaction for which Stripe is facilitating cross-border money movement with a Payment Method marked by an asterisk () in the “Other Payment Methods Fees” table above, Stripe will charge User an international payment methods fee equal to the Transaction Amount multiplied by the applicable percentage below.*

Type	Percentage
Foreign Exchange Fee (Link)	1.00%
Foreign Exchange Fee	1.00%
International Card Fee (Link)	1.00%
International Payment Methods Fee	1.50%

2. Definitions. As used in this Fee Schedule, the following terms have the meanings specified below:

“3D Secure Lookup” means an instance in which a 3D Secure eligibility check on a Customer’s Payment Method is completed successfully.

“Adaptive Acceptance” is Stripe’s authorization retries engine.

“Automatic Card Update” means an instance in which User receives a card update message relevant to a Customer’s card (e.g., a message containing an automatic update of a Customer’s account details, an instruction to contact a Customer for updated information).

“Commitment Term” means a period of time described in the table in the “Minimum Fee Commitment” Section of this Fee Schedule (e.g., Commitment Term 1, Commitment Term 2, Commitment Term 3).

“Direct Rate” means a rate that User directly has negotiated with a Payment Method Provider, and which the Payment Method Provider charges Stripe for User’s Transactions.

“Direct Rate Information” means accurate, complete and current information about User’s Direct Rate and the Transactions to which the Direct Rate applies.

“Eligible Accounts” means all User’s Stripe Accounts to which this Fee Schedule applies and which User has identified to Stripe either before the Effective Date or at or around the time of account creation, excluding any Stripe Account located in Brazil, India or Thailand.

“Eligible Fees” means the fees collected by Stripe, or paid to Stripe, for Services that Stripe provides to User under the Stripe Agreement with respect to all Eligible Accounts. Eligible Fees do not include:

- (a) any Taxes payable in connection with the Services; and
- (b) any losses, damages, penalties, fines and other (including Network Costs,) that Stripe collects from User; and for the purposes of calculating whether User has satisfied a Minimum Fee Commitment and determining any related Shortfall, Eligible Fees also exclude:
- (c) any fees satisfied through the application of Shortfall Credits, or any other credits, rebates, incentives, or other amounts that Stripe pays to User or credits to User’s Stripe Account, unless Stripe explicitly designates to the contrary; and
- (d) any fees Stripe refunds to User.

“Financial Partner” means a third party that provides financial services and with which Stripe interacts to provide the Services.

“Link Payment Method” means the Stripe Services that allow a customer to submit payment to User or a Connected Account via Link using supported Payment Methods, and where the type of Payment Method is visible only as “Link” to User.

“Network Cost” means the amount that Stripe attributes to User for services Financial Partners provide for User's Transactions, including published network interchange fees, scheme fees and associated taxes; and excluding amounts Stripe receives through its program memberships or development efforts with or for a Financial Partner.

“Minimum Fee Commitment” means, for each Commitment Term, the minimum amount of Eligible Fees.

“Payment Card Request” means an instance in which User submits a request to Visa, Mastercard, American Express or other payment card network via the Services, including an authorization, void, balance inquiry, validation, charge, chargeback, re-presentment or reversal.

“Payment Method Request” means each instance in which User submits an authorization or charge request to a payment card network or processes a Transaction using an alternative Payment Method, via the Services, subject to the following:

- (a) multiple activities at different stages of the same underlying Transaction count as a single Payment Method Request (e.g. an authorization request for a Transaction that is subsequently refunded, disputed or reversed);
- (b) only activities carried out in a production environment will be counted; and
- (c) all activities associated with or generated by a Service will be counted; however, Stripe may, at its discretion, by giving notice to User, exclude one or more Services or parts of a Service from being counted, either indefinitely or for a limited period, and as of the Effective Date, activities associated with Stripe Issuing are excluded.

“Payout Currency” means the currency(ies) User has elected to have funds settled into its bank account(s), listed in the table at the beginning of this Fee Schedule.

“Pricing Page” means [https://stripe.com/\[countrycode\]/pricing](https://stripe.com/[countrycode]/pricing), as updated from time to time (where “[countrycode]” means the two-letter abbreviation for the country where User's Stripe Account is located).

“Processing Volume” means the total Transaction Amount processed by Stripe for User's Transactions during a given month.

“Screened Event” means an instance in which User submits via the Services an authorization or charge for screening by Stripe Radar.

“Shortfall” means, with respect to a Commitment Term, an amount equal to the Minimum Fee Commitment for that Commitment Term, less the Eligible Fees for that Commitment Term. For the purposes of calculating the Shortfall, all amounts will be converted to USD.

“Shortfall Credit” means a one-time balance adjustment made by Stripe to User's Stripe Account of an amount equal to a Shortfall collected or received by Stripe.

“Terminal Transaction” means a Transaction submitted via a Stripe Terminal Product (as defined in the terms governing User's use of the Stripe Terminal Services).

“Transaction Amount” means the total amount Stripe processes for a Transaction.

3. Minimum Fee Commitment.

3.1. Amount of Minimum Fee Commitment. User must pay Stripe the Minimum Fee Commitment during each Commitment Term, as stated in the table below.

Commitment Terms	Minimum Fee Commitments
Commitment Term 1: The one year period starting on the Effective Date	$2,972,951.00 USD
Commitment Term 2: The one year period starting on the first anniversary of the Effective Date	$3,338,276.00 USD

The Minimum Fee Commitment applies on an aggregated basis to all Eligible Accounts.

3.2 Collection of Shortfall.

- (a) If the Eligible Fees for a Commitment Term are less than the Minimum Fee Commitment for that Commitment Term, then User must pay Stripe the amount of the Shortfall.
- (b) Stripe may deduct the Shortfall from User's Stripe Account balance, or invoice User for the Shortfall. If Stripe is unable to collect the Shortfall from User's Stripe Account balance or User fails to pay invoiced amounts when due, then (i) Stripe may collect the Shortfall as the Stripe Agreement permits; and (ii) while the Shortfall remains outstanding, then in addition to all other remedies available to Stripe, Stripe may charge User the then-current fees on the Pricing Page (defined below) instead of the fees listed in this Fee Schedule.

3.3 Shortfall Credits.

- (a) With respect to any Commitment Term other than the final Commitment Term, if Stripe is able to collect the Shortfall from User's Stripe Account within 30 days of notifying User of the Shortfall, or User pays the Shortfall when due following receipt of an invoice from Stripe, Stripe will apply a Shortfall Credit to User's Stripe Account. If Stripe collects that Shortfall from multiple Stripe Accounts, then Stripe will apportion the Shortfall Credit among those Stripe Accounts according to the amount collected from each.
- (b) Stripe will apply the Shortfall Credit against future Eligible Fees on the relevant Stripe Account until the Shortfall Credit is fully expended or expires in accordance with this Section.

- (c) If Stripe in its discretion permits User to distribute a Shortfall Credit from its Stripe Account to the User bank account associated with that Stripe Account, then User must maintain a minimum balance in that bank account equal to the current balance of the Shortfall Credit. That balance will be reduced by the amount of the Eligible Fees Stripe collects from that Stripe Account until the Shortfall Credit is fully expended. At its discretion, Stripe may deduct the current amount of the Shortfall Credit from the User bank account and reinsert it into the Stripe Account.
- (d) User may not use Shortfall Credits to reduce any future Shortfall.
- (e) Each Shortfall Credit will expire if not fully expended by the earlier of (i) the termination or expiration of this Fee Schedule, and (ii) one year after the end of the Commitment Term giving rise to the Shortfall. If a Shortfall Credit is held in User's bank account when it expires, Stripe may collect the outstanding amount of the Shortfall Credit in the same manner that Stripe is permitted to collect the Shortfall under the terms of this Fee Schedule.

3.4 Consequences of termination.

- (a) If User terminates the Stripe Agreement or this Fee Schedule during a Commitment Term due to Stripe's material breach of any Stripe representation, warranty or obligation, or Stripe's bankruptcy or insolvency, then:
 - (i) the current Commitment Term will automatically end;
 - (ii) the Minimum Fee Commitment for the current Commitment Term will be prorated based on the amount of the Commitment Term that has already passed as of the effective date of termination (the "Revised Minimum Fee Commitment");
 - (iii) Stripe will calculate any Shortfall for the current Commitment Term based on the Revised Minimum Fee Commitment; and
 - (iv) User will have no obligations with respect to future Commitment Terms.
- (b) If the Stripe Agreement or this Fee Schedule is terminated during a Commitment Term by either party for any other reason, then:
 - (i) the current Commitment Term will automatically end;
 - (ii) the Minimum Fee Commitment for that Commitment Term will remain valid and will not be prorated;
 - (iii) Stripe will calculate any Shortfall for the current Commitment Term based on the Eligible Fees collected or received by Stripe as of the effective date of termination; and
 - (iv) all Minimum Fee Commitments for future Commitment Terms will immediately become due in full, and Stripe may collect Shortfalls for each of them.
- (c) The parties' rights and obligations with respect to Shortfalls survive the termination of this Fee Schedule.

4. Directly-Negotiated Payment Method Rates.

- 4.1. If User has a Direct Rate, then upon Stripe's request, User will provide to Stripe the Direct Rate Information so that Stripe can validate the accuracy of the fees that the Payment Method Provider charges Stripe for User's Transactions.
- 4.2. If a Direct Rate results in a Payment Method Provider imposing higher or lower fees on Stripe than the Payment Method Provider would otherwise impose for User's Transactions, Stripe may at its discretion, and in certain circumstances the Payment Method Provider may require Stripe to, adjust its User-facing fee(s) to incorporate the Direct Rate and pass through the impact of the associated cost increase or reduction to User. Stripe's reduction of any User-facing fee(s) due to a Direct Rate is conditioned on (a) User providing to Stripe the Direct Rate Information promptly after Stripe's request; and (b) if the fee adjustment requires amendment to this Fee Schedule (for example, the Direct Rate contemplates a new fee structure), the parties entering into that amendment.

5. No Discrimination. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, User will ensure that User and its Connected Accounts make the Link Payment Method equally available to all customers. User will ensure that User and its Connected Accounts do not selectively or preferentially encourage only certain customers to use the Link Payment Method. If User breaches this Section 3 and fails to cure the breach within 30 days after Stripe informs User of the breach, Stripe may suspend User's and its Connected Accounts' ability to offer the Link Payment Method.

6. Use of Link Payment Method. User must ensure that User and its Connected Accounts use the Link Payment Method in a manner consistent with the terms of the Stripe Agreement. If the terms of User's or its Connected Accounts' agreements with its own customers or users require amendment in order to allow User or its Connected Accounts to implement the Link Payment Method, User must ensure that User and its Connected Accounts make such amendments before it uses the Link Payment Method.

7. Term. The term of this Fee Schedule begins on the Effective Date and continues for the initial term referenced in the table at the beginning of this Fee Schedule (the "Initial Term"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Fee Schedule or the Stripe Agreement, User may not terminate this Fee Schedule or the Stripe Agreement for convenience. This Fee Schedule will automatically terminate if the Stripe Agreement terminates.

8. Confidentiality. This Fee Schedule is Stripe's confidential information. User may not share its content, including the pricing, with any third party without Stripe's prior written permission.

9. Marketing and Promotional Activities. User and Stripe will participate in the following promotional activities with written mutual consent from both parties for each activity:

- (a) After the Effective Date and with mutually written consent from both parties, Stripe may issue a press release that identifies User as a new user of Services and Stripe as User's primary payment processing provider ("Press Release"). Stripe will provide a draft Press Release to User for approval, which User will not unreasonably withhold, delay or in any event provide later than 5 business days after receiving the draft Press Release. Upon Stripe's request, and within 15 days after the Effective Date, User will provide to Stripe a quote from a User executive regarding User's motivation for partnering with Stripe, which Stripe may include in the Press Release.

- (b) With mutually written consent from both parties, User will participate in 5 reference calls with Stripe analysts and customers during the first 2 years of the term of this Fee Schedule.
- (c) With mutually written consent from both parties, User will participate in at least 1 written or video case study, or other agreed upon co-marketing activity ("Marketing Materials"). Stripe will provide a draft of the Marketing Materials to User for approval, which User will not unreasonably withhold, delay or in any event provide later than 5 business days after receiving the draft Marketing Materials. Stripe may use and distribute the Marketing Materials on Stripe's website and social media channels, and in sales presentations and written communications (e.g., email) to prospective Stripe customers.

10. Interpretation. Unless specified as business days, all references in this Fee Schedule to days, months or years mean calendar days, calendar months or calendar years.

11. Pricing Page. The fees in this Fee Schedule supersede the corresponding fees listed on the Pricing Page during the term of the Fee Schedule. The then-current fees on the Pricing Page apply to the extent not superseded by fees in this Fee Schedule or another existing fee schedule that applies to Stripe and User, or if User uses Services in a country other than the Territory. The then-current fees on the Pricing Page also apply in any case where User uses a bank account settlement currency other than the Payout Currency, unless Stripe at its discretion chooses to convert and apply the corresponding fees listed in this Fee Schedule.

12. General. This Fee Schedule incorporates the terms of the Stripe Agreement by reference. To the extent this Fee Schedule conflicts with existing fee schedules between Stripe and User, this Fee Schedule will govern to the extent of the conflict. This Fee Schedule may not be modified except in a writing signed by the parties. Except as modified in this Fee Schedule, the Stripe Agreement and any existing fee schedules remain in full force and effect. Capitalized undefined terms used in this Fee Schedule have the meaning given them in the Stripe Agreement.
